AS SHE WAS KNOWN.

In commenting upon the announcement of the death of Mrs. Chas. La-Flora, mother of Mrs. Lee Cruce, and who was so well and favorably known in Ardmore, the Denison Herald pays this high tribute of respect. It says: Mrs. Chas. La Flora was the wife of Chas. LaFlora, Captain of the Indian police. The deceased was one of the best known ladies of the Indian territory. She was the sister of ex-Governor William Guy of the Chickasaw nation, and a niece of the late ex-Governor Harris. Her sister, Mrs.
Robert Ream, has a national reputation. Mrs. LaFlora, like other members of the family, was beautiful as well as accomplished. She leaves six children, Anne, Estelle, Chickie and Chockie, (twins) Daisy and Maude.
The writer was a guest at the La Flora home off and on for a number of years, remaining several weeks in the year 1882. The hospitality of the LaFlora's was noted throughout the Indian country. Mr. and Mrs. La-Flora always kept "open houses" to friends as well as strangers.
She was a woman of great intelligence and ability, managing the ferry at Limestone as well as looking after three or four large farms. The deceased at the time of her death, was fifty years of age.

Early to bed and early to rise, Mind your business and tell no lies, Pay your debts and advertise, Boots and shoes of every size,
The best assortment under the skies.
At the Racket Store. 12-19 5t.

Raffle takes are becoming so numerous that it is dangerous to throw a dog, for if you missed the canine you would be liable to hit a man with a raffle list.

A valuable Prescription, Take L. B.
Roberson's school shoes, mix well with brains and pluck; repeat as often as the medicine gives out until prosperity is no longer bearable.
